ASP News! - 36 volunteers will travel on July 14 to Rutherford County, NC, to serve for a week with Appalachia Service Project (ASP), helping to make homes warmer, safer and drier. We would love to have you partner with us in prayer as we go. If you would be willing to pray for us while we are away, please contact Susan Brittain at 919-851-7506 or mbsb1997@earthlink.net for more info. Thanks so much!

Children’s Book Cart ministry - Our goal is to provide books in the homes of children who might not otherwise have them for their very own. The children are thrilled to get the books and have been known to start reading them right then and there! We try to host the cart every week that the Food Pantry is open. If you would like to volunteer to be the host one or more weeks the during the rest of this year, we guarantee that you will get a blessing as well as give a blessing. AND, it’s a sit-down job! The time for hosting the cart is from 4:00 to 5:30 on Thursdays, but you are welcome to join in the devotion time with all Food Pantry volunteers starting at 3:30. If you appreciate the need being met through the book cart and want to participate, please contact Susan Gentry at 919-280-3862 or gsmlgentry@gmail.com with dates you would like to host.

Can you measure, cut and sew a straight line? The Naomi-Louise Circle needs a simple cover to be made for the book cart. Fabric and notions will be provided. ANOTHER sit-down job! Please contact Susan Gentry at gsmlgentry@gmail.com or 919-280-3862. Thanks!

Contact Kristine Barnes with any questions at 919-467-2484 or kristine@as-sure.com.

We will be hosting our next Family Promise families July 14-21. Please help us welcome them by signing up to volunteer for the many hands needed. Volunteers are needed to set up, drive the van, play with kids/teens, serve as overnight host, and take down. Dinner groups are already assigned. We just need the contact person for the group to sign up on the link. Guests have commented on the delicious meals that are served here! Thank you for your help in sharing God’s love with these families in need. Call Suzie Drake with questions, 919-618-2850.
