The Summer Nights Book Club selection for July 31 is Holy Envy: Finding God in the Faith of Others by Barbara Brown Taylor at 7pm in the chapel. Continuing the account she began in her memoir Leaving Church, best-selling author Barbara Brown Taylor presents the moving story of how her spiritual journey evolved once she took off her clergy collar and took on a position teaching world religions to undergraduates in rural Georgia. In Holy Envy, her latest book, Taylor finds the sacred in unexpected places as she contemplates the myriad ways other people and traditions encounter the Transcendent, both by digging deeper into those traditions herself and by seeing them through her students’ eyes. Troubled and inspired by what she learns, Taylor returns to her own tradition for guidance, finding new meaning in old teachings and ultimately enriching her faith in other human beings and in God.

Everyone is welcome and no signups are required.

Peru Update - We have run out of space! We have accumulated nearly everything we need for Peru except dental care items. We could use dozens more toothbrush & toothpaste combos for kids. Thanks so much to all who have contributed goods or funds. Please keep this mission in prayer, especially for the family of Edith’s sister, who is one of the mainstays of our projects and, more importantly, a treasured friend. Thank You!
